9
10 The parent(s) or guardian(s) of any child(ren) enrolled or enrolling in Joint School District
11 No. 2 preschool or K-12th grades is required to provide Joint School District No. 2 school
12 authorities with the immunization information regarding the child's immunity to certain 13 childhood diseases in accordance with Idaho Code, 39-4801, and Title 2, Chapter 15, 14 Immunization Requirements for Idaho School Children, "Rules and Regulations of the 15 Idaho Department of Health and Welfare".

16
17 Proof of immunity must be received upon first admission and prior to attendance. If 18 school authorities do not receive the immunization information prior to attendance, the 19 child must be denied attendance until the information is received.

20
21 The immunization information provided by the parent shall be in the form of a written
22 statement or record signed by a physician or a physician's representative. This 23 statement must provide the vaccine type, number and date of each immunization the 24 child had received or that the child is immune through prior illness (physician diagnosed 25 measles or mumps disease or laboratory proof of immunity).

26
27 Exemptions to these requirements shall be as stated in the law, Idaho Code 39-4802.
